SUMMARY HIGHLIGHTS

1. CURRENT ENROLLMENT - In fall 1969 a total of 132,135 students were enrolled in North Carolina colleges and universities. Of this total 84,427 students or 63.9 percent were enrolled in public institutions and 47,708 or 36.1 percent in private institutions.

2. ENROLLMENT TRENDS - The total 1969 college enrollment increased by 4.2 percent over the 1968 figure. While the enrollment in the public institutions increased 6.8 percent, the enrollment in the private institutions decreased 0.1 percent.

3. UNDERGRADUATE TRANSFERS - Nearly 8,000 new undergraduate transfer students were enrolled in North Carolina colleges and universities, public and private, in fall 1969. One-third of the new transfers were from out-of-state institutions and the remainder from colleges in the state.

4. DEGREES CONFERRED - A total of 17,565 bachelor's degrees, 728 first professional degrees, 3,197 master's degrees, and 556 doctor's degrees were granted by North Carolina colleges and universities during the year ending June 30, 1969.

5. FACULTY AND STAFF - In fall 1969 the percentage of full-time faculty members with doctor's degrees varied from 73 to 24 among public senior institutions and from 71 to 13 among private senior institutions.

6. LIBRARY RESOURCES - The number of bound volumes per full-time equivalent student at private senior institutions (108.6) is nearly twice that at public senior institutions (59.7).

7. EXTENSION ACTIVITIES - Course registrations totaled 21,981 students in military centers and off-campus credit courses offered by public senior institutions in 1968-69.

8. STUDENT COSTS - Tuition charges for the 1969-70 academic year for North Carolina students to attend public senior institutions ranges from $100 to $400. Tuition charges to attend private senior institutions ranges from $500 to $2,000.

9. ADMISSIONS AND FINANCIAL AID - The median Scholastic Aptitude Test score of fall 1969 entering freshmen in public senior institutions was 462 on the verbal test and 499 on the mathematical test for a combined score of 961.

10. STUDENT HOUSING - One-half of the total students in public senior institutions were housed in college-owned dormitories in fall 1969.

11. FINANCIAL STATISTICS - While 26 percent of the current funds revenue in private senior institutions came from student tuition and fees, only 10 percent of the revenue in public senior institutions came from this source. This percentage of revenue from tuition and fees varies widely among private senior institutions, ranging from 12 to 69 percent.

PREFACE

This is the third annual Statistical Abstract of Higher Education in North Carolina prepared by the staff of the Board of Higher Education. It provides information in 11 broad areas ranging from enrollment to student costs. There are 67 tables (nine more than in the previous edition), 17 figures, and a map showing the location of all colleges and universities in the state. Such information, basic to the planning and coordination of a sound and effective statewide system of higher education, should be useful to decision-makers in the institutions and in governmental agencies, as well as to the Legislature and other interested groups and individuals.

The Statistical Abstract was compiled and organized from data provided by each institution to the State Board of Higher Education or provided through the Higher Education General Information Survey of the United States Office of Education. Acknowledgement is extended to the public and private colleges and universities in North Carolina for their cooperation in providing statistical information. Acknowledgement is also made to the members of the research staff of the Board of Higher Education for their services in collecting and analyzing the data.

SECTION I

CURRENT ENROLLMENT

This section presents statistics on the number and detailed characteristics of the students enrolled in North Carolina colleges and universities. In fall 1969 a total of 132,135 students were enrolled in colleges and universities in North Carolina. Of this total 84,427 students or 63.9 percent were enrolled in public institutions and 47,708 or 36.1 percent in private institutions.

The total enrollment figure in this report includes students enrolled in public senior institutions, military centers, college transfer programs in community colleges, private senior and junior colleges, and seminary and Bible colleges.

Some general characteristics of college enrollment by public and private institutions are illustrated in Figure 2, and more information is summarized in Table I. Detailed information by institution is presented in Tables II, III, and IV. Full-time equivalent enrollment which accounts for part-time students is shown by institution in Table V.

The geographic origin of undergraduate students by type of institution is presented in Tables VI and VII. Further detailed information about the origin of undergraduate students at public senior institutions is given in Tables VIII and IX. The geographic origin is listed by county for North Carolina students and by state for out-of-state students. An analysis of the geographic origins of undergraduate students in the 16 public senior institutions is graphically presented in Figure 3. The same information for other types of institutions appears in Table X.

Graduate and first professional enrollment is presented by sex and residence status in Table XI. Information about students enrolled for advanced degrees by field of study is shown in Tables XII and XIII. These two detailed tables are especially useful in assessing the expected advanced degree production in various fields within a year. Table XIV shows summer session enrollment by institution and level.

Table XV shows foreign student enrollment by type of institution and level of instruction in fall 1969. The number and percent of foreign students by institution are shown in Table XVI and by country in Table XVII.

* Terminal occupational studies programs not chiefly creditable toward a bachelor's degree.
 Fifth-Year includes a student who is in a program requiring five years of study for a bachelor's degree (architecture, engineering).
 First Professional includes a student who is in a professional school or program (law, medicine, dentistry, theology, etc.) which requires at least two or more academic years of previous college work for entrance.
* Since it is possible for students to earn a degree in three years at UNC-Asheville, there is no sophomore classification used.
a/ The entire community college system enrolls 15,426 students in two-year technical programs and 7,356 students in one-year vocational programs in addition to the college parallel students included in the table.

SECTION II

ENROLLMENT TRENDS

This section presents data concerning enrollment trends. At the beginning of this century North Carolina had only about 5,000 college students. The number of students steadily increased since then and reached 31,946 in 1940 and 46,598 in 1947. The growth was interrupted during the four-year period 1948 to 1951 when the enrollment dropped from 46,039 to 40,708. Since then there has been an extraordinary upsurge in college enrollment. In fall 1969 it reached 132,135, more than three times the enrollment in 1951.

This upsurge in college enrollment is due in part to the high birth rates following World War II. The rate of increase in college enrollment reached the highest point in 1965 both in public and private institutions. However, it is to be noted that the rate of increase has slackened since 1965. The rate of increase was 4.2 percent in 1969, while it was 12.2 percent in 1965.

Enrollment trends in North Carolina colleges and universities since 1900 are presented in Table XVIII. Table XIX shows the number of students by institution since 1960. The rate of increase varies from one institution to another. In Figure 4 the growth of enrollment at the public senior institutions is plotted by institution on a semilogarithmic scale in which the rate growth is directly comparable.

Other important trends are also presented. Trends by in-state and out-of-state residence status are shown in Figure 5 and Tables XX and XXI. These trends indicate that the number of North Carolina students attending private institutions in the state has been stabilized. Table XXII shows enrollment trends by level of instruction. Trends in geographic origin of undergraduate students are shown in Tables XXIII and XXIV.

SECTION III

UNDERGRADUATE TRANSFERS

This section concerns undergraduate transfers. The information pertains to undergraduate students who transfer within the state and those who transfer from other states to North Carolina institutions. Transfers from North Carolina institutions to other states are not included. Information concerning transfers for the past three years is summarized in Table XXVII.

Figure 7 shows the flow of transfers between and within each of the four types of institutions in the state and from institutions in other states in fall 1969. The actual number by sex is shown in Table XXVIII. A comparison of the flow of transfers with its counterflow reveals that the community colleges received more transfers than they sent to other types of institutions. The public senior institutions received more than twice as many transfers from private senior colleges as they sent to the private senior colleges.

Detailed information on the origin and destination of transfers in the state is presented in Table XXIX (from two-year to senior institutions), Table XXX (among senior institutions), Table XXXI (from senior to two-year colleges), and Table XXXII (among two-year institutions). From figures in these tables a comparison of the numbers of in-transfers and out-transfers of any given institution can be made. Transfers from other states to various types of North Carolina institutions are shown in Table XXXIII. More than one-third of the total transfers from other states were from two neighboring states, Virginia and South Carolina.

SECTION IV

DEGREES CONFERRED

This section pertains to earned degrees conferred by North Carolina senior colleges and universities during the 12-month period ending June 30, 1969. Information presented concerns only bachelor's or higher degrees. Degrees or certificates awarded upon completion of less than four years of work beyond high school are not included.

North Carolina public and private senior colleges and universities conferred the largest number of degrees in their history during 1968-69. A total of 22,046 degrees were conferred by the 46 senior institutions of higher education (including seminary and Bible colleges). This represents an increase of 19 percent over the number granted during the previous year. The number of degrees conferred increased at all degree levels (see Figure 8). The number and percent change at each level are presented by institution in Table XXXIV and by field of study in Table XXXV.

A comparison of public and private institutions as to their degree production in each field of study is presented in Table XXXVI. This comparison at the bachelor's level is graphically shown in Figure 9.

More detailed information by institution, sex, and field of study is presented in Table XXXVII for bachelor's degrees, in Table XXXVIII for first professional degrees, and in Table XXXIX for master's and doctor's degrees. A report on this subject was published in Higher Education in North Carolina (Vol. IV, No. 9, Oct. 31, 1969).

SECTION V

FACULTY AND STAFF

This section deals with faculty and staff in North Carolina senior colleges and universities. Table XL shows the number of employed personnel by primary function and status of employees in fall 1969. In this table, all professional and non-professional employees are classified by full-time and part-time status under the six functional categories: (1) resident instruction and departmental research, (2) organized research, (3) library, (4) extension and public services, (5) auxiliary enterprises and elementary and secondary schools operated by institutions, and (6) all other employees.

In subsequent tables, faculty refers to the professional personnel in the first two functional categories (resident instruction and departmental and organized research) excluding academic deans. Academic rank of full-time faculty members is presented in Table XLI. The percent distribution by academic rank in public and private senior institutions in 1967 and 1969 is compared in Figure 10. In Table XLII full-time faculty members are classified by sex and academic rank. Highest degrees held by full-time faculty members are shown in Table XLIII by academic rank. The percentage of full-time faculty with doctor's degrees in public senior institutions is shown in Figure 11.

Information concerning retention and replacement of full-time faculty members between fall 1968 and fall 1969 is presented in Tables XLIV, XLV, and XLVI. Average salaries of full-time faculty members in public and private senior institutions are shown in Table XLVII. Junior staff and faculty members without academic rank are not included in the computation of these averages.

SECTION VI

LIBRARY RESOURCES

This section provides information concerning college and university library resources, 1968-69. For statistical purposes, a bound volume is defined as a physical unit of any printed, typewritten, handwritten, mimeographed, or processed work contained in one binding or portfolio, hardbound or paperbound, which has been classified, catalogued, or otherwise prepared for use. This includes bound periodical volumes and all nonperiodical government documents.

The number of bound volumes and other resources are shown in Table XLVIII. Data are presented for public senior, community colleges, private senior, seminary and Bible colleges, and private junior colleges. The number of bound volumes as of June 30, 1968 may differ at some institutions from the figures given in the Board publication, Statistical Abstract of Higher Education in North Carolina, 1968-69 (April 1969), due to the more recent inventory of library resources.

Table XLIX shows the number of bound volumes per full-time equivalent student at each institution. The same information is graphically illustrated in Figure 12. The number of bound volumes per full-time equivalent student at private senior institutions (108.6) is almost double the number held by public senior institutions (59.7).

Table L shows total operating expenditures for libraries at all institutions. This includes salaries and wages paid to regular staff and hourly assistants, salary equivalents for contributed-service staff, expenditures for books and materials and binding, and other operating expenditures not otherwise categorized.

SECTION VII

EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

This section describes extension activities at 12 public senior institutions. These institutions are the Asheville, Chapel Hill, Charlotte, Greensboro, and Raleigh campuses of the University of North Carolina and seven regional universities, Appalachian State, East Carolina, Elizabeth City, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State, Pembroke, Western Carolina, and Winston-Salem. All of these institutions are on a semester basis except UNC-Asheville, Appalachian, East Carolina, and Western Carolina, which are on a quarter basis.

Even though extension is not defined uniformly in all institutions, an attempt has been made to collect comparable statistics. In consultation with extension directors at public senior institutions, the Board staff developed definitions of extension activities. These definitions are listed in Appendix B. Extension activities are classified into two broad categories: credit extension and non-credit extension.

Table LI shows the number of students taught in credit extension in public senior institutions during the 1968-69 academic year. Table LII gives information on non-credit extension. Any comparison should consider the difference between semester and quarter systems.

SECTION VIII

STUDENT COSTS

This section provides information concerning basic student costs at all North Carolina colleges and universities for the 1968-69 academic year. The cost is figured on an annual basis for full-time students for the regular academic year excluding summer session(s). The figures reflect data provided by institutions to the Board.

Table LIII shows combined total of tuition and required fees for all institutions for the 1968-69 and 1969-70 academic years.

Table LIV shows tuition, required fees, room, and board by institution. The rate of tuition at all public institutions is considerably higher for out-of-state students than in-state students. With a few exceptions, private institutions charge the same rate of tuition to in-state and out-of-state students. In general, tuition is considerably higher at private institutions. Ranges of tuition and required fees at various types of institutions are shown in Figure 14. There is little variation between public and private institutions in room and board charges. In addition to the costs reported in Table LIV, the total cost of attending college also includes the cost of clothing, laundry, travel, recreation, and other items. The detailed listing of required fees charged to undergraduate students is presented in Table LV.

Tables LVI and LVII provide information on tuition and required fees for graduate students and students in special programs, respectively, at public and private institutions. The room and board cost for graduate students and students in special programs does not substantially differ from that for undergraduate students presented in the previous table.

NOTE: Dotted lines represent averages.
*Includes seminary and Bible colleges.
All Community Colleges charge the same in-state tuition rate.

SECTION IX

ADMISSIONS AND FINANCIAL AID

This section presents information concerning the academic ability of entering freshmen (as measured by tests); the number of applicants, acceptees, and enrollees; and financial aid to the students at public senior institutions.

Table LVIII shows the average Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) scores of entering freshmen from 1962 to 1969. The average score has steadily increased at most of the institutions. The increase is especially outstanding among the institutions which had traditionally lower average scores as indicated by Figure 15. Institutional combined averages (verbal and math) of SAT scores ranged from 708 to 1,142 in fall 1969. The frequency distribution of SAT scores by institution is given in Table LIX. In general, mean scores are higher than median scores. Table LX shows the high school class rank of entering freshmen in fall 1969.

Table LXI shows the number of freshman applicants, acceptees, and enrollees. Table LXII gives the same information for transfer students.

Information concerning student financial aid at public senior institutions during the 12-month period ending June 30, 1969 is summarized in Table LXIII. A total of 11,701 non-athletic scholarships (grants and awards) amounting to $6,370,508 were awarded. Student jobs totaled 15,491 in number and paid $4,160,488. Student loans to 10,813 students totaled $4,167,522. Total student financial aid for all purposes came to approximately $21.7 million in the year ending June 30, 1969. As of that date, loans to 30,310 students in the amount of $17,641,312 were outstanding.

SECTION X

STUDENT HOUSING

This section presents pertinent information on the student housing situation in public senior institutions in North Carolina.

General trends in dormitory facilities and their utilization are shown in Figure 16 and Table LXIV. In fall 1961 occupancy of dormitories in the public senior institutions was 13 percent above normal capacity. Severe overcrowding continued until 1966 when occupancy in dormitories dropped to 3 percent above capacity. In fall 1969 the overcrowding completely disappeared, and the occupancy dropped to 3 percent below capacity. Enrollment housed in dormitories decreased from 69.4 percent in 1960 to 49.5 percent in 1965. Since then the proportion of enrollment housed in dormitories has been stable.

Latest information on student housing is shown in Table LXV. Although the public senior institutions as a whole show under-utilization of dormitories, some institutions still have overcrowded dormitories. Forty-nine percent of the students enrolled in public senior institutions live in dormitories, 25 percent in privately-owned housing, 22 percent in their own homes, 3 percent in fraternity or sorority houses, and the remainder in married student housing or other college-owned housing.

SECTION XI

FINANCIAL STATISTICS

This section provides financial data on public and private colleges and universities in North Carolina. Data are for fiscal year 1968-69, which ends on June 30 for public institutions. The ending date of the fiscal year varies among private institutions.

Table LXVI presents current funds revenue by source for each institution. The total revenue from all sources in public senior institutions amounted to $226 million in fiscal year 1968-69. This represents a 7 percent increase over the total revenue of $212 million in fiscal year 1967-68.

While 26 percent of the total funds revenue in private senior institutions was from student tuition and fees, only 10 percent of the total revenue in public senior institutions came from tuition and fees.

Table LXVII shows current funds expenditures by function for each institution. The total expenditures for all functions in public senior institutions amounted to $219 million in fiscal year 1968-69.

Figure 17 shows the total revenue and expenditures in North Carolina colleges and universities for the fiscal year 1968-69.

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

The definitions below are intended to facilitate the better understanding of information presented in this report. These are selected from the Board's reporting forms and the U. S. Office of Education's Higher Education General Information Survey forms. Some specific definitions appear as footnotes in appropriate tables.

1. ENROLLMENT, unless otherwise noted, refers to the head-count resident-credit enrollment. The resident-credit enrollment includes full-time and part-time students enrolled in courses basic to or creditable to a bachelor's or higher degree. This excludes students in extension, correspondence, adult education, audited courses, short courses, and those enrolled for individual lessons only.

   Undergraduate includes students who have not completed a full four-year program or its equivalent and also students in a five-year bachelor's program. This classification includes students in junior and community colleges in programs transferable to four-year institutions.

   First Professional includes students who are in a professional school or program (law, medicine, dentistry, theology, etc.) which requires at least two or more academic years of previous college work for entrance.

   Graduate includes students who have attained at least one standard bachelor's degree or first professional degree and who are or might be candidates for a master's or doctor's degree.

   Entering Freshmen include new students who have no college credits prior to the immediately previous summer sessions.

   Full-Time Student includes students enrolled in credits equal to at least 75 percent of the normal full-time load. Normal full-time load is the number of credit hours required for graduation divided by the number of semesters or terms normally required for graduation.

   Part-Time Student includes students enrolled for less than 75 percent of the normal full-time load.

   FTE (Full-Time Equivalent) of Part-Time Students is the total number of credit hours of part-time students divided by the normal full-time load. Recognition is made of variations in full-time load for different program levels.

   In-State Students are those whose legal residence, as determined at the institution, is in North Carolina.

Out-of-State Students are those whose legal residence, as determined at the institution, is in a state other than North Carolina or in a foreign country.

2. TRANSFER refers to students transferring to North Carolina institutions who have college credits from other institutions in a previous regular session(s). A former student transferring back to his original institution after attendance at another institution is not classified as a transfer.

3. DEGREES in this report refer to earned degrees conferred (not honorary). Specifically the following degrees are included:

Bachelor's Degree requires successful completion of at least four but not more than five years of academic work.

First Professional Degree signifies the completion of the academic requirements for a selected profession, which is based on an educational program requiring at least two academic years of previous college work for entrance and which requires a total of at least six academic years of college work for completion. Examples of first professional degrees are the Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.), Doctor of Dental Surgery (D.D.S.), and Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) degrees.

Master's Degree is customarily granted upon successful completion of one (sometimes two) academic years of work beyond the bachelor's degree.

Doctor's Degree includes such degrees as Doctor of Education, Doctor of Juridical Science, Doctor of Public Health, and the Doctor of Philosophy in any field.

4. FACULTY member refers to the professional personnel employed in colleges and universities who are primarily assigned to resident instruction and departmental or organized research. This does not include other professional personnel in library, auxiliary enterprises, and public service activities.

5. EXTENSION ACTIVITY is defined in this report as any on- or off-campus instructional, research application, or public service activity sponsored by the reporting institution which is in addition to the regular on-campus instructional and research activities provided for the regularly enrolled, on-campus, degree candidate.

Credit Extension includes students in extension courses which are creditable toward a bachelor's or higher degree, an associate degree, a certificate, a diploma, or other formal award.

Non-Credit Extension includes students in other than credit extension.

On-Campus Extension generally includes students enrolled in evening or weekend courses or special part-time students taking day classes offered by the extension division. When the extension division is not separated from the regular programs, this includes students who enrolled only in evening or weekend courses.

Off-Campus Extension includes students enrolled in off-campus extension courses, excluding military centers.

Military Centers: students enrolled in military centers.

Correspondence students are those taking one or more courses for credit toward a formal degree, by mail.

Television Courses: students taking television courses for credit.

Adult Education includes adults enrolled in non-degree credit courses of regular length (or slightly shorter) which are designed for, or attended principally by, persons who have terminated their formal education.

Short Course refers to face-to-face, organized instruction in a specially designed course which lasts considerably less than the regular sessions but at least four separate days.

Other Types of Non-Credit Extension activities, if any, including courses offered by telecommunication media, conferences, and correspondence not for credit.

The purpose of the North Carolina Board of Higher Education "shall be . . . to plan and promote the development of a sound, vigorous, progressive, and coordinated system of higher education in the State of North Carolina."
